MR. KING MISSING

Mysterious Disappearance in Gaines ville of a Recent Resident of Ocala

(Gainesville Sun, 13th)

Mrs. W. M. King, who moved to Gainesville from Ocala with her husshe has been residing at 107 North Prairie avenue, is almost distracted over the absence of her husband, who has been missing since the afternoon of July 5th

Apparently in the best of humor, Mr. day afternoon, July 5th, at 1 o'clock, telling his wife that he was going to the "Frog Alley" section of the city where he had a number of bills to colearly for supper." That was the last Mrs. King has heard of him, although learn his whereabouts.

It was learned that Mr. King deposited $40 in a local bank on Tuesday of last week and that he withdrew $39.50 of it on the date he disappeared. Circumstances tend to show that he has not met with foul play, but has left the city. Mrs. King is an intelligent woman, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Cassels, among the oldest and most highly respected residents of Island Grove.
